THE MAIDEN'S LAMENT.

Jone a maiden weeping.

"Now wherefore weep!" and I.
"The foundatus bright are leaping.
In gladness to the sky:
The fruitful earth is wearing.
For thee a wreath of flowers:
Thou shoulds not thus with grieving.
Becloud the sunny hours."

The maiden wept. I wondered.
That one so fair should weep.
Had loving ites been surrendered?
Had sorrow cut her deep?
Had lever, riched or mother
Been struck with sudden doom?
It must be so. What other
Distress could bring such gloom?

All this I asked her, tearful Myself to see her grief. Her agony was fearful. She trumbled as leaf. But not a word she uttered Until she saw me glum; And then she sobbed and spluttered: "Ma burned my chewing gum!"

Tomatoes are marketed by packing in crates holding a strick or Winchester bushel made of two ends and one middle piece, each three-quarters of an inch thick, eight inches wide and fourteen inches long; with slats nailed on three inches long; with slats nailed on three inches wide, twenty-two inches long and three-quarters of an inch thick, Good heavy masons lath will answer for slats, leaving a space of one inch for ventilation between them. For a long distance from market they should be picked just as they begin to show a red tinge at the blossom end; but for near by they must be riper or so they will be well ripened when they arrive in market.

Orac should be taken not to pack any cracked or wormy ones, as they spoil the rest and injure the sale of the whole. For Philadelphia market they are usually shipped in five-eighths stave peach baskets, covered with cloth which are returned to the shipper.

A scrap of Paper Saves Her Life.

It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper, but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption favorite topic in the presence of several ladies. One of the latter had a precedious three-year-old son along, He sat patiently on a hasock at his mother's letter and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a lady from whose tongue words of four, five and six syllables fell in rapid succession. During the woman's momentary pause for breath the small boy said: "Ain't oo troat awful tired yet?" And before the long-worded woman could reply the youngster added: "My mamma says oo' choke to def some day wis big words."

Tomatoes a vield the best crops in heavy loam, that will not pack or bake. The plants, except for early planting, can be raised better out of doors, in garden beds. The ground should have a dressing broadcast of 800 bushels to the acre of good, well rotted barn yard or hop pen manure, well and thoroughly plowed in and harrowed down. When the season is well settled, harrow the ground, and furrow out five feet each way; and put in plenty of fine, well rotted manure at the crossing of the furrows, using about $800 bushels to the acre in the hills. Tread down well and cover with soil about three inches deep. Set the plants well down in the ground, pressing the soil well settled, harrow the ground clean and loose with the cultivator and the hee, drawing the soil or iffilling them at each dressing.

Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria destroys Worms and allays feverishness. Castoria prevents vomiting Sour Curd, cures Diarrhoa and Wind Colic. Castoria relieves teething troubles, cures constipation and flatulency. Castoria assimilates the food, regulates the stomach and bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. Castoria is the Children's Panacea-the Mother's Friend.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria in-stead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by foreing oplum, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature screen. "Our physicians in the children's depart-ment have spoken highly of their experi-ence in their outside practice with Costoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has wen us to look with favor upon it." favor upon it."
